FUN FACT

The food network The King's Pantry - known in Danish as Kongens Fadebur builds on more than 800 years of tradition and produce and deliver the best raw materials and products for large events in Nyborg Len.

Back in the day, the royal Nyborg Len covered almost half of Funen and, as one of the only ones in the country, it belonged solely to the king's pantry. This meant that farmers and craftsmen belonging to the len paid taxes in the form of crops and products directly to the king's court. The East Funen producers thus have a very long tradition of being suppliers to the king and Nyborg Castle.
